with
Addiction and the Family in Malaysia
Examining how families are caught up in addiction problems and how that plays out in both a Malaysian and a Muslim culture

Presented by
Dr Dini Farhana Baharudin
Faculty of Leadership and Management
Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia, Malaysia

For registration (mandatory), please use the following link:
<https://webropol.com/s/afinetwebinar>

(This will only work once the Webinar for the previous month has been delivered)

All those Registered will receive the Zoom/Teams link to participate in the Webinar.

These Webinars are free, but as we are a small charity, if you can donate a small amount for each webinar, this would be really appreciated. We suggest 25Euro or £20. Details of how to pay are on this page: <http://www.afinetwork.info/webinar-series/upcoming-webinars>

This Webinar will look at how families are caught up in addiction problems in Malaysia; and how that plays out in both a Malaysian and a Muslim culture; and also at how policy is framed in Malaysia related to all of addiction, families, and Affected Family Members.

A link to a recording of this AFINet Webinar, and the PowerPoint presentation, will be available on the AFINet website following this Webinar, as is the case with previous ones. Future AFINet Webinars are advertised on the AFINet website.

This AFINet Webinar series is part of AFINet [<http://www.afinetwork.info/>], which is a free-to-join Network, providing a platform which:

- * brings together researchers, policy-makers, practitioners, and experts through experience;
- * promotes the well-being of family members, friends and colleagues who are affected by or concerned about another person's problems with or addiction to alcohol, drugs or gambling;
- * and develops research, policy, practice, and advocacy in the field.

AFINet Membership (free) is by application:
